

This week's words have 'ed' and 'er' added to them.

DUE: Friday 18th September 2026

Week Beginning:

MAKE SURE YOU KNOW WHAT EACH WORD MEANS - USE A DICTIONARY

| Spellings | Word List |         |           |          |        |
|-----------|-----------|---------|-----------|----------|--------|
|           | Monday    | Tuesday | Wednesday | Thursday | Friday |
| fried     |           |         |           |          |        |
| cried     |           |         |           |          |        |
| tried     |           |         |           |          |        |
| worried   |           |         |           |          |        |
| funnier   |           |         |           |          |        |
| carrier   |           |         |           |          |        |
| grumpier  |           |         |           |          |        |
| lazier    |           |         |           |          |        |
| February  |           |         |           |          |        |
| heart     |           |         |           |          |        |

Spellings Check

Date:

Words I need to practice...

- lorries
- cities
- babies
- relies
- replying
- worrying
- studying
- applying
- often
- learn

Our Word Aware word of the week is 'determined.' Can you remember what this means and how to use it in a sentence?