Writing a story ending	Cold Task	Hot Task
I can use time, weather, or place sentence starters to set the scene.
I can show how my character feels through their actions or expressions.
I can include speech to add excitement and tension.
I can create a sense of closure by tying up loose ends in my story and reflect on the events of the story to show growth, understanding or how the character has changed.
Writing a newspaper article		Hot Task
I can use a catchy headline.
I can start with a strong opening sentence (who, what, where, when and why).
I can include quotes from important people linked to the article.
I can write in the past tense.
I can use clear paragraphs to organise ideas and help the reader follow easily.
I can include a conclusion.
