Art: Photo Opportunity Unit

This half term we have been looking at photography and in one of our lessons we took on the Getty Challenge from lockdown to recreate a piece of Art.

During half term, I would like you to choose a piece of Art you like (sculpture, painting, drawing etc) and have a go at recreating it. Find props and think about your location carefully.

Here are some examples from their website:

Print it off and bring it in or email a copy to school for the attention of Ms Poole!

5-for-5 Reading

Test Four

Alison Avoids Wonderland

Scene 1 – Alison Sleeps

(Alison is asleep centre stage. She is content and smiles occasionally as if she were enjoying a pleasant dream. A strange, white rabbit hurriedly appears from stage left. He is wearing a waistcoat and is carrying a pocket watch. He approaches Alison. She continues to sleep.)

Rabbit: Oh my, what do we have here? A strange sleeping child. What shall we do? I know: I'll summon the Mad Hatter. Surely, he'll know how to help.

(The rabbit taps three times on his pocket watch and the Mad Hatter appears from stage right. He is dishevelled with wild hair and is wearing an oddly decorated top hat. He jumps slightly when he sees Alison.)

Mad Hatter: (going to poke Alison but recoiling at the last second)
What is this?

Rabbit: A child. Should we wake her?

Mad Hatter: No. The last time a child was here they shrunk themselves, regrew themselves and caused all sorts of havoc. Although I did rather enjoy its company, we'd better leave this one to sleep.

but recoiling at the last second
